Question Paper - Test XII

1.a. Write a short note on the treatment of GAD through cognitive methods. 10

1.b. How does equity theory explain employees' motivation within an organization? 10

1.c. Give a brief account of Savant Syndrome. 10

1.d. How are late bloomers different from underachievers? Suggest strategies for early intervention. 10

1.e. What are valuing diversity programs? What are some of the reasons why diversity education programs fail? 10

2.a. Evaluate the relationship between environmental design and occurrence of crime. What changes in environmental design you would suggest for crime prevention? 15

2.b. Critically examine whether control and individual action could be considered the central variables to study in order to understand women's experience of stress in the workplace. 15

2.c. What are the psychological factors that make a sports person susceptible to superstitious beliefs in sports? Does it improve their performance? Substantiate your answer. 20

3.a. Is the internet empowering consumers to make better decisions, or strengthening marketers' potential to persuade? Critically evaluate. 15

3.b. Give suitable examples from Indian media, preserving cultural values in conflicting co-existence with generational changes and explain, how does it lead to a more dichotomized sense of self? 15

3.c. "Therapy is not a matter of doing something to the individual, or of inducing him to do something about himself. It is instead a matter of freeing him for normal growth and development." Explain. 20

4.a. Identify the different imagery types and explain how these may be used in different situations to improve sports performance. Critically evaluate its effectiveness. 15

4.b. As a military psychologist, how would you prioritize essential attributes of high demand military operational personnel? 15

4.c. How does cultural factors shape power and politics within organizations? Explain with the help of relevant examples. 20

5.a. How would you explain the states of depersonalization and derealization? What are the factors that could predispose one for depersonalization? Explain. 15

5.b. Can virtual learning environment be an alternative to the traditional instructional design? Critically evaluate the relevance of e-learning and m-learning systems. 15

5.c. Why people apparently enjoy entertainment that features actual or threatened victimization of others? Elaborate with the help of suitable examples. 20

©numerons